

① All physcialities of life exists within the same realms of energies; all follows a mathematical order of existence. Which is naturally put together one Atom at a time. As time never be time, Cause motion is all ways in existence. A pure calculation of one Atom could never exist.

Grounding yourself, your energy to the earth naturally before the parameters of other Human Beings energies that the "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" has harness. That same energy that "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" has harness, before it become in Sequence with your energy. That void was created after 34 years of "Technically" not connecting energies with the rest of living Human Beings that are moving & thinking a like in harmony. That "Black Hole" void of potential energy has to go some were. It goes back into the Universe that "Potential Energy". If you don't have the tools & technology to harness that "potential Energy". If you do have the tools & technology you can harness that "potential Energy" & use it.
